THE ELECTION.

The light vote over the state in last Tuesday's election was reflected in the vote in Medina County to a marked degree. However, the fact that all county and precinct officers standing for re-election were running as Independents brought out a better showing for the county than over the state at large where such contests were settled in last summer's primaries.

There were only two contests over county offices, that of Sheriff and County Attorney. In the former race, Chas. J. Schuehle, incumbent, won over H. N. Jungman by a substantial lead. Incumbent H. E. Haass, running on the Independent ticket, was defeated for re-election as County Attorney by F. X. Vance, running as the nominee of last summer's Democratic primary. A tabulation of the vote by precincts in these two contests is given elsewhere.

Another upset occurred in Commissioner precinct No. 2 where incumbent Bippert was defeated for re-election by Robert Rihn. In Commissioner precinct No. 3, incumbent Ben Koch was an easy winner over Oliver Reinhart. These two races are tabulated elsewhere by precincts.

Locally P. R. Richter won over C. F. Haass for Public Weigher, succeeding Robt. Brucks who did not run. Homer Rothe was re-elected constable over Emil Weber. These races are also tabulated.

The election as a whole was notable for its lethargy and lack of interest, both in the county and over the state. The small state vote may affect adversely the state's influence in Democratic party national councils, but the showing made by the Republicans seems to indicate they have little to hope for or expect.

The gains made by that party in many parts of the nation is probably more of a resurgence of the outs seeking to get back in than any change back to old and long honored political principles.

TO PRESERVE WILD LIFE.

A county unit of the Texas Wildlife Federation, Inc. was organized at the High School Auditorium on Thursday night of last week, following a lengthy and informative address by J. W. Chapman, State Manager, of Austin, in explanation of the plans and purposes of the organization.

The local unit elected F. D. Garrison President and O. A. Fly Secretary. About sixty or seventy were in attendance, being mostly ranchmen. The name chosen is Medina County Wildlife Life Association. Dues were set at $1.00 per year and it was decided to affiliate with the State Association.

The body endorsed the passage by the next State Legislature of a $2.00 universal hunting and fishing license law for Texas. Under this proposal any one over 17 years of age who hunts anywhere in Texas will be required to pay an annual license tax of $2.00. A general revision of the present jumble of state and county game and fish laws is expected to be adopted along with the licensing feature.

Mr. Chapman's address developed some surprising facts about the money spent by hunters and fishers, and he pointed out that by devoting proper attention to the preservation of wild life its production can be made a very lucrative feature of the farm income. His audience was favorably impressed with the potential possibilities as pointed out by him, and a committee was tentatively named, to be added to as occasion afforded, to solicit members for the Medina County Wildlife Association.

SOFT WATER FOR AUTOS.

Hondo automobile owners will be glad to learn that they can now obtain soft water for their automobile radiators at Preston C. Gaines Gulf Station.

Mr. Gaines has seen the wisdom of offering this new service to his many customers. After making a careful investigation, he found that the lime deposit from Hondo water was causing considerable trouble in radiators and motor blocks. Installation of a Permutit Water Softener has been made and the continued use of soft water will eliminate any further deposit in your radiator or motor block and will also remove that deposit which is now formed.

Preston Gaines Gulf Station invites all automobile owners to take advantage of this new free service by driving in and having the water changed in your radiator.

Owls Go Down Fighting

After playing the best game of the season, the Hondo Owls took the short end of the game, Cotulla defeating the boys by a score of 14 to 7. The Owls outplayed the Cowboys, leading in first downs and tied in penetrations. Tutor was the Cowboys' star backfield man and seems to be one of the best performers in this district. The Hondo boys took the ball to the Cotulla 1 foot line in the first quarter, failing to make the touchdown.

In the earlier part of the first field, taking the ball to Hondo's 18 yard line, when the game ended with the score 14-7, in favor of the Cotulla Cowboys.

UNDER THE FLOODLIGHTS.

That was a nice gesture . . . dedicating last Friday night's game to Hondo High's past gridiron heroes . . . and admitting free all football lettermen wearing their honor sweaters . . . we'll admit some of the sweaters were framed at the edges, patched at the elbows and yawning at the seams . . . to say nothing of fitting a trifle snugly where chests had slipped with the years . . . but without exception, all were worn with as proud and as gallant an air as in former days of fame and glory . . . among "past heroes" glimpsed in the throng were JACK FUSSELMAN, RUDY RATH, HOMER ROTHE and FRITZ LEINWEBER.

When our "Annie Oakley" failed to arrive at the usual time we feared, we'd have to join the lettermen and wear our basketball sweater—vintage '26—to get in . . . but we'd have had to wrap our "honor and glory" around us squaw-fashion . . . our sweater now forms the lower left-hand corner of our mother's crocheted afghan . . . used as a last resort when the yarn ran low.

We wouldn't have been the only Indian on the Barry reservation . . . there was a Cotulla fan . . . wrapped in a brilliant serape . . . tall red feather in her cap . . . and a modern cigarette where the peace-pipe should have been . . . the atmosphere of the Old West was there . . . COWBOYS, lasso girls, twirling ropes, and war whoops! The only thing missing were the cows . . . not even a cowed spirit (in spite of the 14 to 7 score!)

Thanks are due C. J. SCHUEHLE for the football programs . . . two smart ladies in black, MRS. EARL BOON and MRS. EARL STARNES . . . the war-cry was, "Mow 'em down, Morris! Mow 'em down!" . . . something very special on the apparel side were the leather jackets, backed with the F. F. A. insignia, as worn by the LACY twins, ALBERT and ARTHUR . . . MRS. T. B. KNOPP, complimenting Cotulla's sportsmanship . . . Coach MURRY STEPHENSON take a bow . . . DORIS WINDROW STEPHENSON, greeting old friends . . . we've always envied anyone who could wear the shade of blue of MRS. O. J. BADER's hat . . . COACH SMITH of D'Hanis and "WOOKY" MARX of Sabinal vying for the attention of an attractive Miss . . . that green costume suit does something exciting to FRANCES PFEL's eyes . . . GEORGE RUCKER's head, bloody but unbowed, except when a little top-heavy with adhesive tape . . . a comic figure was the itinerant piano-tuner who had more fun toasting the fans in coffee than watching the game . . . Tonight . . . Armistice Day . . . while lights are dimmed on Barry Field . . . Hondo fans plan to turn out en masse at Pearsall to give the Owls a boost!

Hondo Vs. Pearsall At Pearsall

The Hondo Owls will play their first "out-of-town" game of their 1938 schedule next Friday night when they journey to Pearsall to meet the undefeated Pearsall Mavericks in a conference game. In addition to being hard fought, this Armistice clash will be one of the more important games to be played in this district.

The Owls will probably be the underdogs in this game but will be hard

NEGOTIATIONS FOR PARKER'S EXTRADITION CONTINUE.

Sheriff C. J. Schuehle, accompanied by Messrs. C. J. Bless, Jack Lacy and George Schuehle, left Wednesday for Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, where, Mr. Schuehle had been notified, John "Snake" Parker, negro wanted here for the murder of Roy Embrey a year ago, would be delivered to him as his prisoner. Extradition of Parker had been granted last week. The prisoner was turned over to Schuehle; however, when he and the negro, accompanied by Mexican police officials, reached the International bridge the Mexican immigration authorities refused to allow Parker to cross. They alleged they had received no instructions for Parker's return to the United States side.

The Hondo men remained in Laredo and spent Thursday contacting Mexican federal officials in Mexico City to get the required papers for Parker's permission to cross the border. In a telephone call to Mrs. Schuehle late Thursday evening as we hurried to press, Mr. Schuehle said he planned to be in Hondo about noon today and that he expected to bring Parker with him, barring further unexpected legal entanglements.

Last Saturday Mr. Schuehle made a hurried trip to the border city after being notified that the prisoner would be turned over to him, only to have the Mexican police officials refuse to deliver Parker, as they claimed they had no instructions authorizing his release to American authorities. This time it is hoped the extradition will go through without further hitch.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO HOLD IMPORTANT MEETING.

The Hondo Chamber of Commerce will hold a very important meeting at the Hondo Hotel next Tuesday evening, Nov. 15, at seven P. M. The business meeting will be preceded by a luncheon, and all members of the Chamber of Commerce, and all local business men are urged to be present.

One of the main topics to be discussed will be the incorporation of Hondo. Mr. Ernest L. Brown Jr. of San Antonio, will be present, and will discuss with the Chamber some of the advantages of incorporation. The C. of C. is still short some $150 of having enough to pay for street lights and night watchman for the balance of the year. How shall the deficit be raised? Shall the funds for these two items be raised again in January for 1939? How shall the town finance these two absolutely necessary items? Under the present method of soliciting donations, there are quite a few business-property owners who do not pay one cent toward the street light and night watchman fund. Shall we continue to expect the same old faithful few to continue paying year in and year out? These questions will all be discussed at the meeting next Tuesday evening.

A new secretary will be elected, as Fritz Belchner has moved to Seguin.

TAXIDERMIST.

Attention is called to the card of Mr. W. R. Bippert elsewhere in this paper. He is offering his service as an expert taxidermist to our readers. In an interview with a representative of this paper, Mr. Bippert said:

Another hunting season opens Wednesday, November 16th, and everyone is hoping to get some fine trophy. Many will have their first kill mounted and old timers will take to new poses for variety. Mounted game is becoming popular as decoration in homes and public places. Many new ideas such as the bronze buckhorn mount and deer foot lamp appeal to people who have a collection of game and wish to add something different.

To insure a better job on your kill you must take good care of it when it first comes into your possession. Game taken off cold storage will spoil quickly and should be salted if you have to hold for a length of time. NEVER CUT THROAT on any game but make cut down back of neck. We would like to skin the head, but if you must, use care, pry the skin from horns with screw driver and leave tear ducts in, and don't cut holes.

See Mr. Bippert when in need of a taxidermist.

COMMON SENSE

By Clayton Rand

Hens cackle, roosters crow, dogs bark, frogs croak, jacks bray, bees hum and crows caw.

Trees leaf, plants flower, women paint, men strut, cows moo and birds sing.

Bells chime, winds blow, stars twinkle, rain patters, storms rage and waves lash.

The sun shines, the moon beams, spring speaks, and yet there are men with things to sell, who haven't the common sense to advertise them to the world.

TIME FOR A CHANGE.

No man is allowed to operate a railroad locomotive—though it runs on rails along a predetermined track, with every conceivable safety device to prevent accidents—without long and rigorous training, and periodic examinations for health and capability.

No man can command a ship—though it plies oceans and waterways where the chance of collision with another vessel is microscopically small—without similar training and examinations to determine fitness and ability.

No man can fly an airplane—though its "highway" is the empty air—without providing absolute proof of his competence. Yet any man can operate an automobile down crowded streets and highways, where the margin between safe passage and a possible serious accident is a matter of inches, no matter how ill-fitted he is to drive safely.

That fact largely explains our gigantic motor vehicle accident toll. In some states no examination of any kind is required to obtain a driving license. In others not even a license is needed—the most ignorant and incompetent can get behind the wheel and roar away, endangering everyone in his path. And in most of those states where drivers' licensing systems have been established, the law is usually inadequate and prevents only the most obviously incompetent from endangering the public safety.

Physical infirmities, bad vision, defective hearing, and, most important of all, psychological handicaps that make safe driving impossible—these are found in literally millions of people who are today operating steel juggernauts capable of hundred-mile-an-hour speeds. We'll never go far toward solving the accident problem until every state takes the steps necessary to making certain that no person is given a license without providing proof of reasonable capability and a thorough knowledge of traffic regulations. We've let the incapable drive as they pleased—and they've made our highways a shambles.

THE NEW PROFESSION?

A condition exists in Multnomah, Oregon, that is probably similar to conditions in a majority of counties throughout the nation.

If a newly-proposed, special levy for relief is approved at the coming election, out of each tax dollar raised for county purposes, 44.12 cents will go for the various forms of relief, practically all of which are made mandatory by legislative enactment.

For eight years, the locally controllable costs of county government have remained about the same, yet debt payments and relief costs have more than doubled, and if the special relief tax carries, they will have trebled.

Forty-four and twelve-hundredths cents out of the tax dollar of the richest county in a state for relief nine years after the crash of 1929, and relief expenses still growing! Has relief and its various ramifications become the main function of government? Is it possible that from 10 to 12 million of our population over and above those who are "normally" wards of the state, are being educated to make relief a profession?

In his attempted defense of the Administration's effort to sabotage the work of the Dies Committee, Charles Michelson says, in his weekly outgiving to the press: "When Democratic candidates are assailed it is up to me (as part of the routine of his job) to see that the attack is met. REGARDLESS OF THE SOURCE OF THE ASSAULT." Well, Mr. Dies is a Democratic nominee. Mr. Dies has been attacked—by Mr. Michelson's boss! Now let Mr. Michelson do his stuff!

TWO COUNTIES TO CELEBRATE ARMISTICE HERE.

A sporting event that will create a great deal of interest in this section has been announced by the committee in charge of raising funds for the Sabinal High School band, as plans have been completed for an All Star football game to be played on the local field at 1 P. M. November 11th. Former football stars from the Sabinal section will meet a like All Star team from Hondo. That this will be an excellent game can easily be seen from a study of the line-ups as listed below. We are fortunate on an occasion of this kind in that a great many gridiron stars are still available and a large crowd is expected. The public is urged to attend as the contest will afford an opportunity both to enjoy a good game and contribute to a worthy purpose. Sabinal's High School band is making remarkable progress and the students in it are entitled to the public's support in obtaining uniforms for them. As stated above game time is 1 P. M. Admission 10 and 50 cents.

The Hondo team will be coached by J. Gordon Barry while the Sabinal team is being coached by Hons Richards, both of whom are former coaches and the fellows you used to second-guess on Monday mornings.

The lineups follow:

POTENTATES

The sky is gray and lowering; The trees stand, grim and bare; The North Wind shrieks with fiendish din And snow is in the air.

Outside, the storm-kings are at play, Inside, is warmth and cheer; As 'round our fireside cluster The ones who make home dear.

Corn-poppers joyous fusillade Sends fragrance through the air; Roast apples burst their sizzling skins With hisses of despair.

Brown hickory nuts give up the ghost When hammer crunches shell; Manipulated by a hand That knows its business well.

Though we are poor in worldly goods, Our circle is complete; And so—we're happy potentates—Who do not know defeat.

BOY SCOUT NOTES.

These are busy days for Boy Scouts and their leaders and members of the Boy Scout Circus Committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce as they make preparations for the Boy Scout Circus and Merit Badge Show to be given November 19th, Municipal Auditorium, in San Antonio.

Keeping the tradition that a parade is the thing when a Circus comes to town, plans are being made for a big parade featuring uniformed Scouts with their colors and quaint and unusual species of the animal kingdom.

Advance entries in the Merit Badge Show indicate that the Merit Badge Demonstrations will be more numerous and interesting this year than in the three previous shows, according to Gibbs Macdaniel, Chairman of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Committee. Reservations have been made for 57 booths by troops in the Alamo Area Council.

For the Big Circus performance several troops and individual Boy Scouts have started rehearsal of their acts which will comprise feats of skill, humorous stunts, athletic acts and Scouting acts. Troops 8 and 23 will present a Rube Band Number. Troop 52 will have the singing vaqueros and Troop 67 will put on a bull fight and Troop 25 will stage a horse show, both of these events listed as humorous. A picnic will be the act which Troop 39 will present. The troops of the Mohair District will put on an Aeroplane Act, and the Frio-La Salle District will put on an Archery Demonstration. The New Braunfels High School Band will furnish music for the Circus.

ROAD TO BE DEDICATED.

Marfa, Nov. 7.—W. Lee O'Daniel will dedicate the new paved road between Marfa and Van Horn Monday evening November 14. The dedication celebrates the paving of the last unsurfaced gap on U. S. Highway 90 and completes the paving between Jacksonville, Fla., and San Diego, Calif.

The Governor-elect will be met in McKittrick Canyon near El Paso by a delegation of prominent Big Bend citizens including Mayor H. A. Coffield of Marfa, S. M. Swearingen, president of the U. S. 90 Association, Dr. H. H. Morelock, president of Sul Ross College of Alpine, and others.

Earlier in the day Governor-elect O'Daniel will confer in El Paso with important El Paso and West Texas citizens and will then inspect the site of a proposed state park in McKittrick Canyon.

Marfa is making plans to entertain a large crowd of people from the Big Bend country and from towns along U. S. 90 as far as San Antonio and Houston the night of the highway dedication.

Tuesday Mr. O'Daniel and his party will go to Alpine and to the planned Big Bend National Park. Wednesday he will start hunting Big Bend deer on the H. L. Kokernot ranch.

new fangled idea for solving the current social problems
evolved by the Agriculture department, we hear. The idea seems to be that meats, fruits, vegetables, and other foodstuffs will be charged to the low income group. In both cases the price to be charged will be the middle and higher income groups.

one will take issue with the idea on the ground that persons of low income should eat as well as those of high income. There is room aplenty in the method, however the plan, farm subsidies will continue to keep farm prices up meaning of course that food prices also stay up. Another subsidy will then go into operation to lower prices to a chosen group. In both cases tax dollars would be used for the purpose. One tax jack will be pushing the other and another tax jack the other way. It will be a simple operation for everyone but the taxpayer.

Confusion will reign, too, for the definition of his customer by official tag or card, what price charge. Being accustomed to consumption by now, however, the businessman is expected to be able to bear the burden, we suppose.

This may be another step towards Utopia we hear so much about,
the idea seems to be getting thinner as we go along.

—WS—
The only in the whisper stage but the Brain Buster would need copies of anti-laughing gas if they
Rules Committee.

Be truthful those in the know the whisper stage is as far as the idea will develop. But it is indicative of the trend of thought.

It will be remembered that the Rules Committee upon several occasions has not looked with sympathy upon the new fangled ideas of the boys who run things from the stage in Washington. Consequently, these bright youngsters wish to away with the Rules Committee.

Other words anything which runs the ideas of the Brain Buster is anti-liberal, anti-progressive and something that belongs to the pre-busy era.

The whispering Brain Busters
the powers of the Rules Committee to determine what legislation will be considered by the House will be delegated to the Speaker or Majority Leader. This all goes to show how little the Washington gossamers know of what has gone on in the past. Thirty years ago there was no Rules Committee. The Speaker was the sole power. Old Times recall the phrase "Cannonism", and they will remember the fight of the liberals of the Teddy Roosevelt to break the one man control of the House legislation. And eventually Cannonism was dethroned and the powers of the Speaker were diverted to the hands of a chosen committee.

Apparently the Brain Busters
never heard of that.

But there are still members at the capitol today who remembered all about the Cannonism fight and they will members of what is regarded as the Capitol liberal group. They will tell present day youngsters that they should but apparently they know.

The new Wage-Hour Law is now in operation. It guarantees a minimum of 40 cents per hour and a maximum of 44 hours to all persons working under the Interstate Commerce clause of the Constitution.
Washington at this date is still being plagued with requests for information concerning who is in interstate commerce and who is not. Time only can answer many questions and that will be after certain points are decided by the courts.

But the significant thing is the desire of business, large and small to cooperate with Administration. But now that the nation is trying to set a minimum pay for workers some are suggesting and others will grow that immigration should be stopped until all Americans are taken care of. Also, as suggested by Martin Dies, chairman of the House committee investigating Communism, Nazism, Socialism and the other isms, it is time that people here thought only of Americanism. And Dies adds that those who advocate the overthrow of Americanism should be DEPORTED
at once.

AUSTIN, Nov. 7.—Financial affairs of the State of Texas engaged able attention in Austin this week.
Various reports for the fiscal year ended August 31, 1938, became available. Outstanding developments included these facts revealed by the audits and reports:

Income and expenses of the State government reached an all-time peak, with total receipts of the State amounting to $197,715,961, of which only $175,311,068 was classed as "revenue receipts". Expenditures for the fiscal year totaled $157,747-$77, an increase of about $13,000-000 over the previous year.

Schools Cost Most

Education led all other governmental costs, with $52,829,722, and highways were next with $48,014,442.

Every dollar of State revenue spent included the following major items: Educational purposes 33.48 cents; highways 30.43 cents; public welfare (including old age pensions and Confederate pensions), 18.6
cents.

A decline in costs for the year under the previous year were reflected by five governmental departments, including the legislative, executive and administrative, highways and parks and monuments. Government functions which cost more this year were judiciary, protection of life and property, regulation of business and industry, public health, conservation of natural resources (supervision of oil and gas production), eleemosynary and correctional institutions, educational service, and debt service.

Gas Tax Nets 42 Millions

The gasoline tax proved the largest single source of revenue for the year, yielding $42,228,405, or 63.69 cents
of each revenue dollar received. Gross receipts taxes brought in 12.91
cents per dollar and ad valorem property taxes brought only 8.84 cents.
Automobile license taxes brought in 4.08 cents per dollar, while the chain store tax, a new levy, yielded 1.13
cents.

Significantly, the State auditor made public a report of an audit of the affairs of the State Department of Education which contained some pointed criticism, and recommended that a centralized bookkeeping system be installed, with one individual responsible for the accounting of this, the most costly function of government.

Raps School Accounting

Auditor Tom King reported the records of one manufacturer of appliances used by the vocational rehabilitation department indicated sales commissions had been paid an employee of this division, but a letter from the manufacturer later declared the payment was a "loan" instead of a commission. Other items of loose accounting included payment of expenses accounts of the director of school census by local officials, without sufficient data available to verify the items. King also reported an expenditure of over $6,000 for pay of clerks under the title of "coordinators" in vocational education work, was apparently made in violation of State law. He also criticized inadequate records in the college entrance examination division, and payment of salaries to employees while attending college in Texas and other states.
The department spent during the biennium $606,299 for salaries and $141,601 for traveling expense.

Deficit Looms

The deficit in the State's general fund reached a high point of $18-426,353 as of Oct. 31, but Treasurer
Charley Lockhart predicted a decline, as the 1939 payments on Texas
"bread bonds" have already been set aside from the fund, and revenue
served by the Library of Congress, says that what we have is a Representative form of government. There is a lot of difference. That is why there is a Congress. People elect Representatives and Senators to safeguard their interests. And the framers of the Constitution knew what they were doing. They had learned their lesson from King George III.
Consequently, they didn't want concentration of power. It is interesting to note that the framers carefully placed in the House of Representatives the sole power to tax. And to make sure that power was used wisely members of the House must be re-elected every two years.

—WS—
Speaking of throttling, Washington side-line spectators wonder whether the new upward business trend is to be halted after the general elections by a renewal of name calling. Even government economists say the upturn came too early to be caused by renewed government spending which won't be really effective until next summer. They believe, instead, that the cause was a breathing spell which coaxed another chance.
If business and money are frightened into the storm cellar again, then another spending program will be inaugurated. The debt will pile up, and unemployment jump.

—WS—
The Dies Congressional committee investigating un-American activities has formally been denied the aid of federal agencies in its effort to expose Fascists, Nazis and Communists.
Both the WPA and Justice Department in letters refusing to assign men to the Dies committee said they had granted help to the LaFollette
"Civil Liberties" committee. As one newspaper columnist remarked: Dies committee men "have the feeling that Messrs. Hopkins (WPA administrator) and Arnold (assistant attorney general) have weasel-worded themselves out of helping a Fascist-Communist investigation after helping the LaFollette pin a CIO John Lewis button on Tom Girdler et al."

coming into the general fund for the 1939 fiscal year will go to reduce the deficit. Texas is in excellent shape so far as bonded debt is concerned, as the last of the $20,000,000 of bread bonds issued during the depression will be retired within four years, ahead of schedule.

Highway Officials Coming

Texas will be host to the highway building brains of the nation next month, when the American Association of State Highway officials, including representatives from every American state, convenes at Dallas
Dec. 5-8 for their annual parley. Following the convention, the highway builders will be conducted by Texas road officials on a three-day motor tour, visiting the East Texas rose and oil fields, the Gulf Coast, the famous King Ranch, and colorful San Antonio. These annual meetings provide an opportunity to exchange ideas developed throughout the nation on advanced highway building practice and policies, and Texas with the largest highway mileage of any American State, will welcome the roadmen. C. H. Purcell, chief engineer of the California highway department, is president.

Montgomery Is Speller

Julian Montgomery, chief engineer of the Texas Highway Department, is declared by his friends to be the most erudite public official in Austin.
He is not only a crack engineer, but such a good grammarian and speller that he is the despair of the steno-graphers in the Highway Department. At a recent conference of division engineers, Montgomery started an old-fashioned spelling bee,
and spelled down all the engineers,
tossing off the usual "trick" spelling bee words with the greatest of ease.

New Park To Be Donated

Future generations of Texas will enjoy one of the most beautiful scenic sections of the Trans-Pecos region under plans now under way by the State Park Board and the Legislature to set aside a tract of 1600 acres in the Guadalupe Mountains as a State park and wildlife sanctuary.
The land has been offered as a donation by J. C. Hunter, Wichita Falls oilman. It includes beautiful Mc-Kittrick Canyon, and El Capital, famous peak. The country contains bighorn sheep, mule deer, and a colony of elk numbering 400, introduced from Yellowstone park's herd several years ago. The State Highway department will develop plans for a road into the area if it becomes a State park and game preserve.

SEEKING ELECTRIC SERVICE.

A movement is on and somewhat well advanced in the north-central part of the county to organize a Rural Electrification Corporation for the purpose of bringing electric current to the farms and ranches
throughout that section.

We are not informed as to details,
but it is our understanding that no effort to produce current will be made. Some production source will be tapped with a high tension wire, the current purchased from that source, and then conveyed by a net-work of distribution wires to the consumers.

Something near two hundred cooperators had signed up for the service at the last report we had.

It will bring to the farms, so serviced, power, light, refrigeration, etc., and should prove both satisfactory and profitable where there is water to be pumped, feed to be ground, ensilage to be cut, washing machines to be turned; in fact, most any form of labor requiring power or light.

SOME CHANGE.

October weather was noted for its summer-like temperature, 100 degrees or over not being infrequent.
November came in still warm, and Sunday afternoon was uncomfortably
so. A norther came down from the regions of ice and snow Sunday afternoon. It persisted with more or less intensity, and a killing frost followed on Monday night. A temperature of 25 degrees was reported at several points, and as low as 22
at one place.

The annual membership drive of the National Red Cross opens today.
Mr. O. A. Fly of Hondo is the Roll Call Chairman for Medina County and will solicit memberships in the Hondo territory. Your membership donation may be left at the Post Office or at Fly Drug Co. Get your Red Cross button!

The ladies of St. John's parish entertained with a keno party at the parish hall Sunday night. Despite the cold weather, a large crowd attended and many beautiful prizes were awarded. Refreshments of hot chocolate and cake were served at the end of the games.

This shop is equipped to do all kinds of commercial printing and our prices are reasonable. We can also handle your orders for lithographing, embossing or blank-book manufacturing. When it's office or commercial stationery ring telephone 127

Mr. and Mrs. George Brucks are being congratulated on the birth of their baby daughter, Barbara Ann, weighing 9 pounds 2 ounces, on November 4th, 1938, at Medina Hospital.
Barbara Ann is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schlentz.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Massey, formerly of Sabinal but now of Hondo, were business visitors at this office Friday. Elsewhere in this paper is their announcement of the opening of their second-hand furniture store and mattress factory.

Work is continuing this week on laying new and larger water mains on Carle Avenue. Homer Wilson, manager of the local water works system, is in charge of the work and he is installing several additional fire plugs.

1938, following a stroke. Mrs. Miller had been in ill health for some time from the effects of a leg injury and was confined to her bed when she suffered the stroke two weeks ago.
Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Monday morning from the

The deceased was born November tonio; and two sons, O. H. Miller of

One sister, Mrs. Minna Hansen, of Lake Charles, La., and several grandchildren and a number of relatives

MISSIONARY MEETINGS.

The Women's Missionary Society
met at the church Monday afternoon in their regular business meeting and a home mission program for the week of prayer. The foreign Mission program was given at the Sunday evening service.

Mrs. J. A. Hogger was leader of the Sunday evening program, assisted by Mrs. Barnitz Carle and Mrs.
Richard Reilly.

Mrs. J. S. Fly was leader for the Monday afternoon program, assisted by Mrs. J. G. Newton and Miss Bertha Newton. Both of the week of prayer programs were very interesting and a generous offering was collected for special mission fields.

The president, Mrs. O. A. Fly, was in charge of the business meeting.
The outstanding feature of this meeting was the election of officers for next year.

Only two new officers were elected all others were re-elected for another year.

Officers for next year are: President, Mrs. O. A. Fly; Vice President, Miss Lora King; Treasurer, Mrs. Earl
Boon; Local Treasurer, Mrs. Charles
Monkhouse; Recording Secretary, Mrs. S. O. Woolls; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Theo. Cameron.

Superintendent of childrens work,
Miss Willie Fly; superintendent of Baby Specials, Mrs. A. H. Schweers;

superintendent of supplies, Miss Lenora Schmidt; superintendent of Study, Mrs. W. S. Highsmith; superintendent of Social Service Relations, Mrs. Barnitz Carle; superintendent of Local Work, Mrs. Richard Reilly;

superintendent of World Outlook, Mrs. Roland Chancey; superintendent of Publicity, Mrs. J. G. Newton.

A Mission Study class conducted by our superintendent of Study, Mrs.
Highsmith, was completed last week.
The name of the book studied was
"The City Church in America" and was presented in a very interesting and instructive manner.

These studies were held in the homes of Mesdames W. S. Highsmith, O. A. Fly, J. G. Newton and J. A.
Hogger.

Sixteen members attended and enjoyed these study classes.

FIRES AT RUNGE BURN 2 STORES.

Runge, Tex., Nov. 9.—Firemen of four towns fought for more than three hours Wednesday before they were able to extinguish a fire which guttered buildings occupied by the Red and White Grocery and Green
Tag Variety Store.

Originating in the rear of the Variety Store, the blaze spread rapidly and soon the stock of the grocery store was in flames.

Unable to cope with the flames which were threatening other nearby buildings, a call for help was sent out and fire departments in Yorktown, Nordheim and Kenedy rushed equipment to Runge and aided local firemen.

A complete estimate of the loss was not announced, but it was evident that the damage was several thousand dollars. The building occupied by the Variety Store was owned by Mrs. Charles Johnson and the other by Romeo Korth. One was of iron construction and the other of brick. There was some insurance.

The blaze was discovered about 10 A. M. Fire department officials had not determined its cause.—San Antonio Express.

The variety store burned at Runge was a branch of the Green Tag Store of Hondo and was owned by our local business man, Mr. Will James.

A foretaste of the delights of Thanksgiving were given a large number of local people, Tuesday, when Baptist ladies served a turkey dinner in the Nester building. The ladies were well satisfied with the results and the funds collected for benefit of the church.

Willie R. Bippert and son, R. W., Mr. Louis Eisenhauer and son, were here from LaCoste on Tuesday and paid our offer a pleasant call. The elder Mr. Bippert and the Managing Editor of the paper, attended summer school at Castroville in the summer of 1908.

Mr. W. W. Mansell returned to home in Waverly, Iowa, last week, accompanied by her sister, Lucille Hollaway, and Mrs. Newsom, who planned to be away about two weeks. They have been home of experiencing severe cold and snow, but of greatly enjoying their visit. Mrs. Mansell had spent much longer with her mother, Mrs. R. S. Maw, who was also at the same time, has returned to her home in Boston, Mass.

The members of the local organization of United Latin-Americans are staging an elaborate celebration in Hondo today in commemoration of Armistice Day. It is a well-arranged program of social features, distinguished speakers, and other events, including a luncheon at the Hondo Hotel at 12 o'clock. The Managing Editor is pleased to acknowledge an invitation to the party, but the hour will probably be smothered with printers ink struggling to get this paper off press and into the mail. He asks them for the favor just the day, congratulating them on their victory. (Several Latin names are in the roster of American casualties in Medina County before Armistice Day) and hopes they may have a successful celebration.

QUIHI NOTES.

(Jacob) watered the flock of Laban, his mother's brother. Gen 29:10. Jacob's state of mind we know. We know what stirred him into this certain gust of activity, whether the work was of his like or his dislike. The first men he met in the new surroundings were shepherds. His uncle Laban belonged to this class of people. And Jacob's future lot would be linked with the same class. It seemed to be the leading profession in those days. Of other professions we hear only casually. The social rank of "shepherds" we know very little of. In the course of time they were classified in the lower brackets; often quoted with a tinge of contempt. Often left out in the line-up of social and professional factors. Plutarch, a Greek, living in the latter part in the century of Christ, and who concerned himself deeply with the social complex of his time, and giving a kind of digest of the opinions of the cultured nations of his day, he summarizes his view about like this. The commonwealth he presents under the picture of a living organism, under the analogy or likeness of a human body. The soul of that body, to him, is the priesthood; the head is the prince; the heart is the "senate", the eyes, ears and vocal organs are the judges and governors; the hands are the officials and soldiers; the loins are those who attend the prince; the financial officers are the digestive organs (often subject to dangerous disorders); those that sustain the body and carry it forward are the feet, the cultivators of the soil and the "shepherds". The latter are fundamental, truly, and the body would be greatly handicapped without them; he does not deny it, yet there is the shadow of the thought of superiority and inferiority, of one organ outclassing the other. This class distinction is an old-timer, greatly alive, however, with the energy and self-assertion of youth. The conflict or rub with other "organs", other classes, is a common, almost daily, observance, excepting the political campaign seasons when everybody is a brother of absolute equality. Stressed or not, there is that double current, that dividing line, that classifying according to a man's culture—non-culture, influence, obscurity, education, ignorance, skill, non-skill, earning capacity, public burden, usefulness, drone, life, greater sphere, smaller circle, etc. There is an undeniable difference in scope and action and results, in brain and brawn. The slant of superiority and inferiority is man-made, baseless and unjust. The classes are depending upon each other. The professional duties differ, as do the functions of head and heart and feet, but all are necessary for the welfare of the body, of the commonwealth, in home and state and school and church. "Let me off at my husband's bank", said the proud lady to the motor-man. "Just let me off at my husband's peanut stand", said the Italian woman, equally proud, behind her. What the bank was to the one, the peanut stand was to the other, the source of livelihood, regardless of rank, airs, dress, manners the two may have shown. And often there is fast revenge in that looking down upon the other fellow. How? "Listen, my good sailor-boy," observed the college professor, "did you ever study the philosophic systems of Spinoza, Hobbes, Kant, Hegel?" "No, sir, I can only row a boat and swim," was the answer. "Well, my boy, that is a useless profession, nowadays, with those safe steamers". An explosion wrecked that steamer and it was sinking fast. "Now then" shouted the sailor, "I am going to make for the shore with my swimming, the thing you despised; maybe you can make use of one of your 'systems' now and save yourself". He didn't. There is value, history, even glory in every profession, even in the "lowest". Shepherds made the history of Egypt. In their rank and file we find Moses, the great statesman, David, the king, Amos the prophet. The shepherds of the Christmas night will never be forgotten with their religious devotion and their first Christmas service. Christ calls Himself the "Good Shepherd", with all the tenderness and dignity and faithfulness of that term, and His glorious work is perpetuated by His servants, the pastors (shepherds) of today. The blessing of God goes with Jacob's new profession as it goes with all honest trades. Humbly let each his lesson well prepare and all the household well shall fare."

A fine mission service we had last Sunday morning and the place of worship was well filled, nicely decorated and choir and male chorus bringing some very good selections. The norther blew into our plans in the evening and only a few ventured out. Our guest preacher, the Rev. Gogolin, again preached a very appropriate sermon. He is a reader of the Anvil Herald; so our thanks will reach him in this column. And thanks to all the other contributors and visitors.

The first real freeze swept over this section and brought havoc to many a garden, potflower and climbing plant. The foliage of the trees received a death-blow and the bleak winter-view will be ushered in. Winter comes to man and plant. Work well done—and every leaf did it in its modest way—that must remain the slogan. May the Lord favor us with the sorely needed rain in the wake of this freeze and norther.

Mr. and Mrs. Harm Gerdes, accompanied by some of their children, covered a good stretch of Mexico in a recent trip down there, getting as far as Monterey. Roads, mountains, valleys, scenery and especially the people there, received a loud word of praise from the travelers, and, no doubt, many others will attempt the tour.

Announcements for November 13th: English services at 9:30; Sunday school and Bible class (thanks for the fine surprise attendance) at 10:30; German service at New Fountain at 2; Luther League program at 7 P. M. We sincerely invite you and your family and friends.

THE NEW HOME OF DR. MILES LABORATORIES.

ONE OF OUR REGULAR ADVERTISERS MOVES INTO NEW LABORATORIES.

The picture shown above was sent to us a few days ago and interested us so much that we are passing it on to our readers, who have been seeing advertisements of Dr. Miles Products in our paper for many years.

This new building is the last word in modern construction. It is three stories high, of reinforced concrete, pressed brick and glass brick construction. Each floor contains nearly 100,000 square feet of space. Natural light is admitted by glass brick of which there are more than 15,000, each 8" X 8" in the outside walls. Artificial light is indirect and as nearly as possible like natural daylight.

The new building is air conditioned throughout, air conditioning having proved of much value in improving the quality of Dr. Miles products. Indeed, without air conditioning, controlled to the finest degree, it would be impossible to manufacture some of Dr. Miles medicines.

The laboratories are the last word in scientific equipment and are in charge of specialists who devote their entire time to analyzing the ingredients used in Dr. Miles remedies and the finished remedies. Much space in this building is devoted to thoroughly modern experimental laboratories in which renowned chemists constantly strive to perfect methods of improving Dr. Miles' remedies.

A letter received from the Advertising Manager of Miles Laboratories, Inc. says, in part—

"Your paper and a thousand more weekly newspapers have been an important factor in the growth of our Company. Weekly newspapers were one of the first mediums we used to tell the public about Miles Remedies."

We have been using them consistently for more than fifty years."

When our readers see Alka-Seltzer, Nerveine, or Anti-Pain Pills advertised in these columns, we are sure they will be glad to know that these products are made in such a modern laboratory and under such rigid sanitary conditions.

FIRE BOYS GET WORK-OUTS.

Two fire alarms called out the Hondo Volunteer Fire Department this week, one taking them to the Matt Koch home near D'Hanis. Early Wednesday morning the Koch home caught fire from a defective flue, but the fire boys were able to extinguish the blaze before serious damage was done.

About 11:30 Thursday morning the second call came, to put out a flaming shed in back of Rothe's Confectionery. This blaze was started when a trash fire was built too near the out-house.

About ten days ago at midnight the fire department was called to Mexican town on the Northwest side of Hondo, where a house had caught on fire, but the flames were extinguished before the fire fighters arrived on the scene.

Program Presented by Graduate of State Institute for Blind

Presenting an assembly program to the student body, last Thursday, Mrs. Ruth Maddox, a graduate of the State Institute for the blind, demonstrated some of the arts she had learned in the institution.

Mrs. Maddox entered the blind institute when she was nine years old. At that time her eyes were not entirely blind but at the age of twelve she contracted flu and lost her sight from this illness. According to Mrs. Maddox, both sexes are admitted to this institute but the play ground and living quarters are separated. Many of the children in the institute are only partially blind, however, these are required to wear caps over their eyes in classes so that they will not strain to distinguish objects.

In the first grade, the children are given blocks with raised numbers on them. They are taught to recognize by touch these numbers and place the blocks in order and to add and subtract with them. The blind use a system of writing called Braille, named after its inventor. This system consists of a series of raised dots. Each letter of the alphabet is represented by a group of raised dots. In reading the right hand travels across each line, the fingers feeling each letter, while the left hand marks the line to be read. Mrs. Maddox displayed a magazine written in Braille. She also had the equipment used in this system and "wrote" the alphabet for the students to see. Paper used for the Braille writing must be thick so that the dots will not punch through. Typewriting also is taught to the pupils. Mrs. Maddox stated that a blind person is particularly proud when they learn to type because they can then write what other people, who have normal eyes, may read.

Students in this institute are taught to play games, and are given instructions on musical instruments and voice. Mrs. Maddox proved that she is an accomplished pianist and singer by playing and singing several songs.

Accompanied by Mr. Maddox, Mrs. Maddox has presented programs in a great number of the Texas schools and is endorsed by the State Department of Education.

Keeping Up With the Grads of Dear Ole' H. H. S.

Edmund Ney, 1937 H. H. S. graduate now attending Texas University, was initiated into the Phi Eta Sigma Honorary Fraternity for Freshmen men last Thursday.

Sis and Billie Merritt, junior and freshman, respectively, in the University, are becoming with Rex Alcorn a well-known dance team in University activities. Last Friday they danced in a floor show in the main ballroom of the Texas Union building at the fall dance of the Newman Club. The team is known as "Sis, Rex and Billie". Sis graduated from H. H. S. in 1936 and Billie in 1938.

Jo Reilly, graduate of 1937 attending S. W. T. T. C. in San Marcos, has been elected by popular vote to be chairman on a social council composed of six girls.

Jakie Schuehle, senior at Rice Institute, kicked a field goal which won the Arkansas game last Saturday at Fayetteville, Ark. Jake graduated from H. H. S. in 1935.

Ted Dawson, also "grad" of 1935, is becoming an important figure on the University of Texas football team. John Mumme, attending A. & I. in Kingsville, is also making his place on that football team. He graduated in 1937.

Murrel Stiegler and Wanda Redmond, graduates of 1937 and 1938, respectively, attending A. & I., are still leaders for that school's pep squad. Murrel, a sophomore, is head leader, while Wanda, a freshman, is an assistant.

FOUR PURCHASED Students Responsible for Care and Feeding

As a class project, the biology class purchased Izzy, Tizzy, Gizzy, and Cizzy, four guinea pigs, at fifty cents each, from the Lackey Pet Shop in San Antonio, and are using them for experimentation on the value of a balanced diet.

Izzy and Tizzy will be fed a balanced diet while Cizzy and Gizzy will not, be given any food that contains vitamins. The two will not suffer from hunger, for food is kept in their cage at all times, but while Izzy and Tizzy will be given fresh fruit and vegetables, the other two will be given only meat, beans, etc.

The biology class has been divided into four sections. Each section will be responsible for the care and feeding of the guinea pigs for a week. Strict schedules on the diets and weekly weights of the guinea pigs will be kept.

At present the largest guinea pig weighs 400 grams, the next 352, the next 234 1/2 and the smallest weighs 292 grams. (453.6 grams equal one pound.)

H. E. Students Learn New Way to Prepare Eggs

The first year class of Future Homemakers is learning how to make muffins. After having a laboratory on making muffins at school, each tried their skill at home and then compared the muffins.

The girls have also started cooking eggs in a variety of ways. They made egg omelets and are now practicing at home so that they may improve their cooking. They tried making scrambled eggs in a double boiler and they turned out to be very good. The girls believe that eggs cooked in a double boiler are much more wholesome than those cooked in a frying pan.

The students will now learn to fix white sauce and Egg a la Goldenrod.

P. T. A. Membership Drive Successful

As a result of a membership drive, there are now one hundred members in the Hondo Parent-Teachers Association, according to Mrs. W. S. Highsmith, president of the association. Membership dues were sent in to the State and National P. T. A. Department, October 31. This membership campaign is carried on every year during the month of October.

Those members who belonged to the P. T. A. last year and have not yet paid their dues still have time to turn the money in as dues will be sent off again in the near future.

NEW SCIENCE EQUIPMENT PURCHASED

New equipment has been purchased for the Science Department, thus making possible a much higher degree of efficiency in the experiments performed by students in this laboratory. Approximately eighty-five dollars has been spent for these articles which are here listed: meter sticks, osmosis apparatus, lift pump, weather maps, bell and ring, electromagnet, students battery, coil, distillation tubes, burners, clamps, cover glasses, stencils, biological equipment, Smallwood charts, battery substitute, cloud forming apparatus, acid hydrochloric, acid nitric, acid sulfuric, alcohol denatured, beef extract, iron filings, petrolatum blue and red litmus paper, and mossy zinc.

AREA ORGANIZED BY HOMEMAKERS

Forty Local Members Attend

Forty members of the local Homemaking Club attended the organizing meeting of the Sixth Area of Future Homemakers of Texas in San Antonio last Saturday. Twelve hundred Texas girls attended this meeting.

Elected president was Jane Gidley of Lytle; secretary, Betty Comore of Weslaco; treasurer, Rosamond Caffield of Del Rio; reporter, Mildred Cox of Harlandale; parliamentarian, Ivy Yates of Corpus Christi. Mrs. C. H. Raschke, Homemaking instructor of Lytle, was named sponsor.

Corpus Christi was chosen for the next semi-annual meeting to be held the first Saturday in March.

Covers 35 Counties

The new organization covers thirty-five counties, with San Antonio as the center. It contains seventy school chapters. The area was part of District No. 4 before reorganization.

The seven thousand girls belonging to the Future Homemakers subscribe to a creed that begins, "I believe that the home is woman's natural environment."

The chapter meetings, as demonstrated with a model meeting Saturday by the South San Antonio Chapter, are devoted partly to the girls' expressing themselves on such questions as whether the family finances should be explained to the children.

The Future Homemakers were first organized in Texas. The first club was formed in San Angelo four years ago.

BEATING THE FROST KING.

By T. C. Richardson, Secretary
Breeder-Feeder Association

Late feed crops which need more time to mature their seed are in danger of frost at almost any time in late fall. It is not necessary to lose a large part of their feed value either by premature cutting or from frost, if the crop is made into ensilage. Frost strikes unexpectedly and singes the foliage, cut the crop as quickly as possible and ensile it later. Often the daily weather report will forewarn of killing frost, and give time to cut the crop before it strikes. In either case the bales can lie as they fall until cutting is completed, with slight damage to its feeding value.

Two years ago the writer saw many fields of grain sorghums hit by premature frost in the lower Panhandle. Growers started the row binders immediately, and the frost damage did not extend beyond the foliage. Those who had not already prepared it, began digging trench silos, leaving the crop in the field until the silo was ready. Since it only takes a day or two to construct a trench of considerable capacity, the crop dried out very little in the meantime.

It is preferable to permit the seed to mature, since the feeding value of the ensilage is greater than if it is cut in the "dough" stage, which was formerly recommended. On the other hand, the silo will preserve its full value in whatever stage it is cut, and ensilage is far better than no silage at all. The past summer saw many fields burned up by drought and useless for feed which would have been well worth saving had the crop been cut and ensiled before it was entirely ruined.

SCIENCE CLUB CONSTITUTION

At the second regular meeting of the Science Club last Thursday night, a committee was appointed to draw up a new constitution which will be voted on at the next meeting. The committee is composed of Mary Frances Van Fleet, chairman, Arthur Lacy, Herbert Bulgerin, Charles Richter and Jo Dawson.

Members present at the meeting were: Novelle Lambert, Jonelle Gaines, Shirley Baby, Laura Lee Leinweber, E. J. Williams, G. H. Finger, James Weynand, Hubert Hermes, Herbert Bulgerin and Charles Richter. There were four new members present.

It is strange but true that some people still question the practicability of the trench silo. The point is well illustrated by the reply recently given the writer about sheep on the farms in East Texas. "Well", answered the man asked, "those who have no farm flocks are still saying sheep do no good in East Texas, and those who have them want more". So with the silo—I've never found a man who gave it a fair trial who didn't like it.

It is neither hard nor expensive. While an ensilage cutter, a row binder or even an ensilage harvester which takes the place of both, is a great advantage, ensilage can be made without either. Cut it with a butcher knife on a broom handle, a machete, a sled cutter, if a better implement is not available. Cut it while succulent and the foliage is green if possible; add water according to the degree of dryness; you can even make ensilage from cured fodder by using enough water, but that isn't the way it ought to be done.

It is much easier to feed out if the ensilage is cut into short shreds and it also packs better in the silo. But good ensilage is made by laying the stalks shingle-fashion, closely packing them, and wetting them down to facilitate fermentation. The only real indispensables are to exclude the air and provide moisture enough to insure the fermentation which preserves the material. Keep these two points in mind and anyone can make good ensilage of corn, sweet or grain sorghums, or other highly carbonaceous forage.

Ensilage made of whole stalks, singly or in bundles, must be cut as fed, and a simple implement to do this will cost a dollar or less. A heavy iron bar for a handle with a transverse blade of tempered steel (which can be kept sharp will do the job of cutting).

After the meeting was adjourned, slides shown of plant and animal life were enjoyed by the group.

More chicks have a better chance of living since science discovered Puratene, the concentrated source of vitamin A, commonly known as the disease-resistance vitamin. Added to chicken feed, Puratene steps up the vitamin A activity two and one-half times. This gives baby chicks added reserves and resistance in their battle for life against the treacherous disease germs that so frequently wipe out half the chicks in the hatch.

"Pura-tene helps to strengthen the linings of the air passages and internal tissues causing them to act as natural barriers against disease germs," says Meade Summers, Purina Mills poultry specialist. "The development of this new vital substance and the discovery of its resistance building power have led to the extensive use of Puratene in which starters. It is available to chick raisers now."

THE above play is from a single wing back formation with unbalanced line to the right. We have been most successful with this play than the regular off tackle with No. 4 back receiving the ball direct. It is tied up with other plays in which the full back keeps the ball and hits into the line or gives to No. 1 back on a reverse.

No. 3 received the ball from center, spins and gives it to No. 4 for a regular off tackle play. No. 3 heads back into the line and blocks the first man through. The blocking assignments are as shown.

ST. LOUIS HIGH SCHOOL NEWS.

Participating in Essay Contest.

The St. Louis High School students are among the hundreds of school children in the State who are participating in the essay contest being sponsored by the Wolff & Marx Co. of San Antonio.

The contestants must read a novel and adhere strictly to the following statements in order to have their essays qualified as entries: An explanation of why he or she liked it; its outstanding features and what hero or heroine appealed most to the reader and why.

The best essays accepted by the English teacher will be submitted to the contest judges. A list of ten books which the contestants would like to have in his possession must accompany the entry.

Book Week To Be Observed.

The elementary and high school students are anxiously anticipating the arrival of Book Week, which will be observed from November 13th to November 18th. A Book Week contest has begun which will close Nov. 18. The purpose of this contest is to increase the number of books, magazines, pamphlets and pictures in the elementary and high school's individual libraries. The students are equally divided into groups. Each book, magazine, pamphlet and picture accepted by the librarian, of the different groups is valued at so many points. At the close of the contest the group having the highest percentage of points will receive as a reward for their efforts, a weiner roast.

Basketball To Be Introduced.

The students have suddenly become sports conscious, meaning that the routine of studying has become too monotonous and for diversion they have turned to sports.

Ground has been broken for a basketball court. The necessary equipment is being purchased and within the next two or three weeks the students will be ready to begin practice.

Visit Moyer Military Academy.

The Superior and Principal of Moyer Military Academy extended an invitation to the boys and girls of St. Louis school to visit the Academy. The students readily accepted the kind invitation, for the majority of students would never have had the opportunity of visiting the school, were it not for the Superior's thoughtfulness.

The children were conducted through the entire building, a visit to the Chapel being the first place they wanted to see. Several dormitories sufficiently large enough to accommodate 75 cadets in luxurious comfort, dining and entrance halls, class rooms, reception rooms, a spacious kitchen, and an auditorium complete the sturdy construction and fine finish of this structure. The building is thoroughly modern and spacious throughout.

MY OWN MOTHER.

My Mother lies ill tonight,
Has lain ill for many nights,
I can't go to her—
She who gave me life, knocks at death's great door.

I wish that I could sit by her side now,

By her side when the Master hears her knock and opens;

For I feel that He will answer her call ere day comes again.

She has suffered so; that dear one who taught me

My first words, my first prayers.

There are those who wonder why her soul lingers still.

In her pain-racked mundane abode; I wonder not because I know that God wills it so.

May, I wonder not, for only through suffering,

Does the Soul become purified, That it may dwell in peace forever.

When the Mortal form's breath ceases,

I understand and I weep not, Mother dear.

Only long to be near you,

That I might touch your beloved hand.

And will some of your pain to bear;

Or perhaps make your pain a little less.

By whispering in your ear that I love you,

And wish that I had told you so more often;

While yet your ears could hear,

And ask you to forgive me for all the things I might

Have done for you, and didn't find time to do.

You were a good Mother—My Old Fashioned Mother.

Who found happiness and contentment.

In the little things which life gave you.

Never longing for the things which riches buy;

Living simply and being loved by all who crossed your threshold.

I shall always see you there in your little home.

Everything so nicely in its place.

Your radio which brought you many glad hours,

A game of dominoes with kind friends.

Coffee each day at two;

Then as the sun came to rest beyond the horizon,

Your chores all through, each flower watered.

You sitting on your little porch.

Dreaming and praying for your every child.

That's how I shall remember you, My Mother.

Thus as I close my eyes and pray myself to sleep this night,

I shall ask that God may will your soul to enter that door of rest;

Where you will dwell with our Loved ones who await you there,

Our own little Angel who loved you so.

Will clasp your hand and lead you to the Glorious Master.

And so goodnight, My Mother, Goodnight;

I grieve not for I know that God is merciful.

And your soul will find its way.

Through the darkness of this night.

To the light of Eternal Peace.
